Bharadwaj Kulkarni

I am a story-driven designer, podcaster and creative strategist, collecting insights and creating delightful experiences across a wide range of media. I love cryptic crosswords and useless facts, and hate wearing sunglasses.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Cognitive Snap – Design Researcher, Podcast Producer
FEBRUARY 2020 - PRESENT, GOTHENBURG

Researching, networking, hosting, producing and managing a podcast that explores science, philosophy and economics through the lens of design.

Remberg – UI/UX Designer and Creative Strategist
OCTOBER 2018 - MARCH 2019, MUNICH

I carried out design and branding workshops with an IoT start-up and designed their new identity. After user research, I developed the interface for their web app.

Visevi Robotics – UX/Industrial Designer
APRIL 2018 - OCTOBER 2018, MUNICH

I worked on the hardware product design for a collaborative robotics start-up. I also developed the communication strategy of the company, including content for the website and a product explainer video.

Studio Gritt – Lead Designer
JUNE 2016 - JULY 2017, BANGALORE

I performed a wide range of design tasks at design consultancy, including product design, interior design and furniture design, as well as managing large, commercial projects like the design of Innov8 Coworking Spaces in Bangalore, Mumbai and New Delhi.
